HERE AND THERE ABOUT THE TOWN

This is Apple Week Throughout the Country and The Stroller Hears It May Be in Commemoration of the First Eviction Case in World's History.

"Well I suppose you are eating apples this week several times daily," remarked the customer dropping the newspaper he was reading and leaning back more comfortably in his chair while waiting for his turn to have his face scraped.

"How is that?" asked the busy barber as he tested the razor's edge on a hair.

"Don't you know that this is apple week throughout the country?" replied the customer in a surprised voice, "and it has been set aside for the express purpose of eating as many apples as possible without getting indigestion."

"Hub," retorted the barber, "the only man I ever heard of getting indigestion from eating an apple was Adam, and maybe this week has been set aside to commemorate his eviction from the Garden of Eden."

"Always trying to be funny," said the customer in a sarcastic tone, "and never fully succeeding."

"Adam did not find it so funny," replied the barber in a soothing tone, "and there is no use in you getting all het up over the fact that you lost some money betting on Cox and the league of nations."

"Well I am thankful that that is settled anyway," said the customer. "What is settled?" asked the barber.

"The election," explained the customer, "and now we won't have to argue and worry as to who is to be our next president for another four years anyway."

"It won't take you long to find something else to worry about," said the barber, "for instance what the tax rate will be next year."

"Higher than last I suppose," replied the customer.

"Well I am willing to bet 10 to 1 that it won't be any lower," replied the barber, "but we can live in hopes that the city administration decides to give us a Christmas present of a lower rate."

"Well there is no use worrying over that yet," said the customer, "for there will be a lot of other worries in our midst before tax time rolls around again."

"And I have found out that it don't pay to worry anyway," replied the barber, "for worry never got you anywhere, and never will."

THE STROLLER.

BURROUGHS AND BARRUS HEARD

D. A. R. Chapter Has Interesting
Meeting With Naturalist Present and Clifton G. Abbott Describing Conservation Work.

Thursday afternoon was a Red Letter Day for Wiltwyck Chapter, D. A. R., for John Burroughs and Dr. Clara Barrus were the honored guests of the chapter early in the afternoon, and later the chapter members and their friends, thanks to Mrs. Lawrence and Miss Husted, were privileged to hear Mr. Abbott of the State Conservation Commission tell of the commission's work and to see some rarely beautiful lantern slides and moving pictures of scenes in the state preserves.

The usual business of the afternoon was postponed in order that John Burroughs and Dr. Barrus might say a few words to the women, and Mr. Burroughs's talk proved to be a delightful homey and informal. Mrs. William M. Davis, the regent, had introduced him as one of the greatest living naturalists, but this Mr. Burroughs at once disclaimed, saying that naturalists always dissected things, and he had never dissected anything in his life but a chicken on his dinner plate. What he claimed to be was a lover of nature. Mr. Burroughs said he was a Son of the Revolution, and went on and gave a delightful sketch of his grandfather as he remembered him. He went as a lad into the Revolutionary War, too young for other service than that of a servant. He came out bearing a musket. He was with Washington at Valley Forge. Mr. Burroughs remembered him between the years when he must have been seventy to eighty-eight years of age; a small man wearing a blue coat with brass buttons and high top boots, the tops being made of red leather. Even after he was eighty years of age he would go on long tramps and fishing expeditions and the boy John Burroughs accompanied him, perhaps gaining his love of nature in large measure during these fishing expeditions. At all events Mr. Burroughs says he is expecting to live as long as his grandfather and to keep as well and active. He has three more books to come and a number of magazine articles. Mr. Burroughs concluded his chat with a humorous repetition of some of the superlative compliments paid to his last book, over which superlatives he was greatly amused himself.

Dr. Barrus said that she was more than amazed that Mr. Burroughs should have even so much as mentioned them, being the over-modest man that he was. Her contribution to the Burroughs feature of the afternoon, was a story of a gathering at Eden where Theodore Roosevelt spoke on "John Muir and John Burroughs," both authors being present and sitting side by side. As the appreciation of Mr. Roosevelt foreshadowed the tribute he would pay these great contributors to American knowledge and information delightfully presented, Dr. Barrus noted that the words seemed to set as a positive stimulant to John Muir, who straightened up, with brightening eye and keen look, while John Burroughs hung his head in confusion and almost distress; so differently did the tribute react upon the two men.

Several members of the chapter were excused for a brief period and met Mr. Burroughs and Dr. Barrus before they were obliged to leave.

During the business session Miss Julia Lippincott Wood, who has been a member at large, was transferred from Washington, D. C., and accepted as a member of Wiltwyck Chapter, D. A. R. The motion was made and carried that the chapter continue to care for and support their French orphan boy another year. Mrs. George DuBois of New Paltz, delegate to the recent state convention held at Saratoga Springs, gave a very interesting, entertaining and informing report of the convention which was fully enjoyed by all present.

The meeting then adjourned and the chapter members and their friends repaired to the assembly room upstairs, where Superintendent M. J. Michael introduced the speaker on State Conservation Commission work. Mr. Michael called to mind his early boyhood spent at the foot of the Adirondack mountains, his joy in hunting and fishing there and his yearly haste to get to his Adirondack mountain camp in the summer, all of which had made him particularly and deeply interested in the work of our Conservation Commission. He then introduced Clifton G. Abbott, "Publicity Agent" of the Conservation Commission, who kept every one profoundly interested in his subject as long as he spoke or showed the exquisite stereopticon and moving pictures.

Mr. Abbott said that the commission was divided into four groups, lands and forests, fish and game, waters, and Saratoga Springs. The department of waters, having to do more particularly with the engineering problems of preservation of water powers, waterways, etc., he would not touch upon that, but would devote himself to the other three.

The speaker described the many ways in which the great state park covers some two million acres of forest lands of the Adirondack and Catskill Mountains was being made into a great recreational center for the people of the land, at the same time preserving the forests or replanting where they had been destroyed, as a protection to the vast watershed of the state. The various forms of the protection were noted and pictured in the production work, the speaker showed and told of the vast resources of the state where there are being raised from cord, or native red pine, and when cut and sent out to distant parts of the land.

In connection with the fish and game department the speaker showed, as well as the plans for raising pheasants, etc. The speaker told some delightful stories of wild animal life and illustrated them charmingly. Then there were the far-flung animals and their care, protection and propagation.

It was all most interesting and the Aged Man in Rags Brought in From New Paltz.

A man aged about 60 years, whose clothes were in rags, was picked up by Deputy Sheriff W. Chipp Tamney in the town of New Paltz Thursday. He gave his name as William Wells, and said his home was at Benedict Corners, Fulton county, N. Y. The man had been wandering around the outskirts of the village with an old blanket wrapped about him. Sheriff Smith went to New Paltz and brought Wells to the county jail and will get in touch with the authorities of Fulton county to ascertain if possible who the man is, as he refuses to talk about himself.

FOUR MERCANTILE GAMES TONIGHT

This evening on the bowling alleys at the Y. M. C. A. the Mercantile Bowling League will put on four interesting matches between eight of the teams of that organization. In order to save time the games between the Ulster County National Bank and the Gas and Electric Co., and the Fuller Shirt Co. and the Armour Meat Co., are scheduled for 7:30 sharp. The other teams, the West Shore and the O. & W. R. R. and the Jacobsons and the Matthews Co. will start playing at 9 o'clock sharp. Frank DuFon, the well known local bowler, will be on the foul line acting as referee.

In the tilt between the U. C. N. Bank and the Gas and Electric Company there should be some fine bowling. The bankers will be depending on their star, Charlie Snyder, supported by Brenn and Port. The G. & E. have two men in Krom and Marchant that should be able to hold up their end of any game bowled. The Fuller-Armour game is one in which it is hard to pick a winner as each has experienced bowlers of no mean ability. If the Fullers come out in full strength, there will be no stopping them, although the beef dealers have some reputation for throwing. If Pop Davis's men take the bull by the horns early in the match, they should be able to maintain the lead.

In the match between the rail-roads, the West Shore will apparently have little trouble in side tracking the O. & W., although the latter team is not carrying any excess baggage in Cochran, Rogers and Wilbur. The Jacobson-Matthews set-to will also be an interesting match. J. W. Matthews so far holds the high score for three games and his support will be a great help to the Matthews team. Addis, Murray and Heyman will probably appear for the shirt makers. All interested in bowling are invited to attend the match games. Last week the seats were crowded with spectators and a large crowd is expected tonight.

Coffee—The Healthful Drink!

There is something in the very fragrance of good coffee that is healthful. It brings comfort to the sick room, gives zest to the daily meal, clears the tired brain, revives fatigued muscles. Coffee is more than a beverage—it serves both as food and drink.

True connoisseurs of good, wholesome coffee give REYNOLDS RELIANCE COFFEE their unqualified approval. It is a delicious blend of mellowed coffees, scientifically roasted and ground by a special process that removes the bitter chaff. RELIANCE is a wholesome, digestible, healthful coffee that cannot endanger the health.

Remember to ask for RELIANCE. It is always fresh at your grocer's—guaranteed to please or your money back. The Wm. T. Reynolds Co., Inc., Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

Pertinent Facts—Dreese Valentine, Naugus, of the Faculty of Medicine, of Paris, says: "Coffee stimulates the muscles, animates the circulation, facilitates digestion and makes intellectual work more easy."

BLOUSE IN FAVOR FOR FALL

Popular Garment Promises to Flourish as Never Before—Dresses and Gowns Passé.

Dresses and gowns are utterly passé. But if mildly fresh, such garments have their place in the fall wardrobe, she must see to it that her one-piece gown is so camouflaged that it appears as a separate skirt and blouse, for fashion decrees that blouses shall flourish as never before in this coming season.

Manufacturers and retailers explain this fall as another broadside at fashion dictating Paris. For Paris has long snuffed at the American invention of separate skirt and waist.

New York women have hailed the blouse year with delight. The average shop windows are full of these "sippers" of all kinds and prices. The slip-on blouse continues to be first in popularity while boleros and tie-back effects are very good. The long tunic and Russian models are in the minority although this past season effect is partly carried out by the modern age blouses which fit the figure like a tight bodice or basque to the hips and then flare out over full plaited or gathered skirt. The old style tucked-in blouses are so completely out of the running that skirts have been sewed to inner canopies over which the blouse is worn.

The only new blouses that are not worn outside the skirt are the hand-made models of linen, batiste, lawn or organdy. These are adorned with hand-sewn lace, tucking, hemstitching or drawn work and are to be very popular for morning wear.

Another quaint exception to the over model is the stern 1920 blouse. These are fashioned of heavy silk, tightly fitted to the body and buttoned primarily up the center front, way to the ears.

A great majority of the Fifth Avenue blouses are fairly opulent with color and material. Their purpose in life is to flatter the rather dull fall suits and coats. Favorite shades are ecru, green, rust and chow-brown, peacock and turquoise blue, mahogany, canary, henna and black and white. The latter combination, especially, is having a heavy run.

"MOLDED FROCK" NEW MODE

Paris Style Originators Plan Smart Attire—Corsets Are Only Slightly Curved.

According to the fashion experts of Paris the "molded frock" is among the smartest of the new fashions. But by "molded" we do not mean a revival of the "hour glass" figure—that unnatural over-emphasized fashion which made women look as though they had been poured into their clothes and then left to harden. Mme. Magner, the famous corset maker of Paris, announces that corsets will be only slightly curved, following the natural lines. And from that we gather that the frocks will tend in the same direction.

And several of these "molded frocks" have already been seen at the opera, worn by the smartest society leaders of Paris. The corsage is straight across the top, supported by a strand of brilliants or perhaps a narrow silver ribbon, and the tissue itself is carried down over one hip in an unbroken line and across the front, with a fold or two of drapery at the left side. The whole effect is exquisitely graceful and has the priceless charm of simplicity.—Harper's Bazar.

MOUNTAINS AFFECT BIRD LIFE

Andes Said to Be Responsible for Many of Species Found in South America.

The richness of South American bird-life is due to the presence of the Andes more than to any other one thing. It is the absence of great mountain chains in Africa, which accounts for the comparatively small numbers of species of birds in that continent. From here to tropical, four distinct zones of life—tropical, sub-tropical, temperate and alpine—are found in the higher Andes, and each zone has species which are confined to it.

It is not only the height of the Andes which affects bird life. In places, for hundreds of miles, this gigantic range only appears as two or three ridges, each not less than 10,000 or 11,000 feet in height, and these are made up of an impenetrable to the species living in the tropical or sub-tropical valleys they include as though they extended to the south. Including in, therefore, added to the factors of climate and submergence in the making of the species, and the three combined have produced a great variety of bird life that is found in any area of similar extent in the world. The American museum of natural history inaugurated in 1911 a biological survey of the Andean region with particular reference to its bird life. As a result of the collections and bird studies made, the museum is now in possession of large collections and data from the more northern part of the chain.

Y. M. C. A. TO START ITS BIBLE CLASS

The Central Young Men's Christian Association through its Religious Committee, with Charles Ramsey as chairman, has planned a strong course in Bible Study. This will be a men's Bible class. Supper will be served at 6:30 p. m. and a charge of 50c will be made. For those who desire the Bible Study itself the time will be 7:15 p. m. sharp. The Bible today is held up as one book that should be carefully studied. The greatest men in the country have based much of their success to their knowledge of this book. The various characters of the Bible, as has been recorded teach us many things for our every day business. The special subject chosen for this study is "Jesus, The Master Teacher." He was the greatest business man that this world has ever seen. He came on the greatest mission and performed the greatest work. His knowledge of human nature has surpassed all others. He was the divine Son of God and His life and dealings with men will be studied with much interest and careful thought. A special effort is being made to make this course attractive to men of all ages. If the word of God is to be known it must be studied. This class meets every Monday night throughout the winter and at many sessions these lessons will be thoroughly illustrated by various methods. The general secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association has been a student of the Moody school and is to conduct the class. The first session will meet Monday evening, November 8, at 6:30 o'clock for supper and 7:15 for class session. All men are cordially invited.

AFTER ANY ILLNESS THE BLOOD IS WEAK

If You Get Well Slowly, Try Building Up Your Blood

It's Blood That Feeds The Body

Pepto-Mangan Creates Rich, Red Blood, Changes Pale Complexions to Blooms of Health

A serious illness, even a cold that is hard to shake off, can reduce the blood to a weak, watery condition which keeps the normal strength and vigor from coming back.

This poor physical condition brings on a helpless, discouraged mental condition which, rich, red blood can restore.

Pure blood should be rich in iron which nature supplies to some extent "food." But often through faulty digestion or improper diet you don't get the needed iron, and your blood, on which your health depends, grows weaker and weaker.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan enriches the blood, increases the red blood cells and supplies the ingredients that bring a quick response in vigor, vitality, and fine color.

Physicians recommend Gude's Pepto-Mangan. When you order, be sure the word "Gude's" is on the package. Without "Gude's" it is not Pepto-Mangan. Furnished in both liquid and tablet form. For sale by all druggists.—Advertisement.

RED CROSS RELIEF SPEED EXPLAINED

Preparedness Helped Organization Make Great Record at Wall Street Explosion.

"How on earth did the Red Cross get here so quickly?"

On all sides among the tremendous crowds which hurried to Wall Street, New York City, following the recent explosion in America's financial center which killed thirty-five persons and injured several hundred one heard queries similar to the above. Numerous requests for enlightenment along the same line have been received at Atlantic Division Headquarters of the Red Cross, all occasioned by the fact that within twenty minutes after the death-dealing blast Red Cross nurses, physicians, surgical dressings, hospital supplies and a squad of experienced relief workers were on the scene.

Red Cross preparedness for just such emergencies is the general answer to these queries. The specific answer is the smoothness of the organization maintained by the Atlantic Division in New York City to meet emergencies of this character—the Metropolitan Disaster Relief Committee. This committee, composed of representatives of all the Red Cross chapters in the metropolitan area, is in touch with every part of the territory.

The member of the committee nearest the scene of disaster sets in motion the machinery of the committee.

More than fifty communities in the Atlantic Division have established Red Cross disaster relief units.

BIG AMERICANS AID RED CROSS ROLL CALL

Realization of the fact that in addition to strengthening the health, nursing and disaster relief resources of the United States, the American Red Cross is still under moral obligation to help the stricken peoples in many parts of Central Europe, where 11,000,000 fatherless children are only one of the big problems, has brought back to the Red Cross for active work during the annual Roll Call, November 14 to 20, almost one hundred men and women of nationwide prominence.

The Atlantic Division has the honor of having twenty-seven representatives on this committee. Henry P. Davison, chairman of the War Council of the Red Cross and the leading figure in Red Cross affairs throughout the world, heading the organization. Other members of the committee from New York, New Jersey and Connecticut are: Chester H. Aldrich, Elhan Allen, Cornelius N. Biles, George B. Case, Cleveland H. Dodge, Mrs. William K. Draper, Abram L. COLONIAL LEAGUE
GAME TONIGHT

On account of the withdrawal of the Pioneers from the Colonial League because of inability to secure a sufficient number of players the managers had a meeting last night to arrange the schedule. Manager Mufson offered a happy solution of the difficulty by withdrawing his team, the Progressives, from the league, enabling the managers to draw up a permanent schedule on a six team basis. This they did and the reduction in number enables each team to meet the other twice, a much more satisfactory arrangement. This evening really marks the opening of the Colonial League games for the season 1920-21. Fast games are assured. The first contest will be between St. Peter's and St. Mary's and the keen spirit of friendly rivalry between the two parishes is sure to compel interest. The second game will see the Centrals and the Tigers battling for supremacy. The Tigers are reputed to have a remarkable lineup, but Manager Meyers says, "They'll have to show me." It is regrettable that the change in the schedule gives such little time for publicity but the nature of the games this evening will surely draw the basketball fans from far and near to St. Peter's Hall. Balle's orchestra will keep the crowd in good spirits and supply dance music after the games.

Reckoning Longitude.

Longitude in the United Kingdom and generally in the United States is reckoned from Greenwich, degrees being known as east longitude and west longitude from that point until they meet in the Pacific ocean at 180 degrees from Greenwich, the opposite zero point. Asia being in east longitude and the United States in west longitude. For the same reason the term Orient is applied to the East and Occident to the West. It may be said that Germany reckons longitude from Berlin, France from Paris and Spain from Madrid, while sometimes it is reckoned in this country from Washington, but, usually speaking, Greenwich is meant.

A Perfect Chesterfield.

"I had a little experience this morning with an extremely polite man." "Tell me about it." "I was standing near him in a barber shop while a dark attendant was briskly applying the whisk brush. The gentleman turned to me and said, 'Excuse my dust.'"—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Harold Robinson, 16-year-old "radio wizard" of Keyport, N. J., who recently succeeded in transmitting to the human voice across the Atlantic with a "toy" apparatus. It is the first time in the history of radio telephony that the human voice has been transmitted across the ocean by an amateur. Robinson's verbal message was heard in Aberdeenshire, Scotland, a distance of 3,500 miles. The fact was learned when Robinson received a letter from George Henzie of Aberdeenshire, who wrote that he had received the message and had also heard a phonograph record being played in the Robinson home. He has been experimenting with the apparatus for about a year.

AT THE THEATRE.

Champion's Strongest Play Tonight
At Opera House.

Who killed Jesus Quince? That was all you could hear around the Opera House last night when "The Crimson Alibi" was presented to the patrons and no one knew until the final curtain of the act. It had the same mystery that kept Broadway guessing and had the same effect on the audience at the Opera House. Tonight Mr. Champion will present "The Unmarried Mother" a play that every mother, wife, sweetheart, sister should see, a play that teaches a moral lesson. Tomorrow's attraction will be "The House of Guilt" Norma Talmadge in "A Daughter of Two Worlds", from Leroy Scott's greatest novel, tells of a girl who rises from disgrace to supreme social heights despite her record. Showing at Keeney's tonight and tomorrow.

At the Auditorium tonight the great detective called "Tex" in "Circumstantial Evidence" is programmed. Tomorrow Sylvia Breamer in "The Moonshine Trail" and Juanita Hansen in "The Lost City" serial.

One of the unusual features of Philip Bartholomew's musical play, "When Dreams Come True" lies in the fact that the entire action of the play is absolutely free from suggestiveness in lines and action. It will be seen at the Kingston Opera House Monday and Tuesday as a vaudeville performance De Luxe in connection with the Photoplay "Human Collateral" starring Corinne Griffith.

THE MOHICAN COMPANY

Miss Louise Allen of New York was an ardent supporter of Governor Cox. She told a friend she would walk down Broadway holding a big black chest of the Governor's campaign date and win. Miss Allen's friend called on her the day after election with the biggest black chest in the world and in New York and told Miss Allen to make good on her vow. Miss Allen was crying as the photo shows her walking down Broadway with the chest. An hour later it was reported that Miss Allen was indisposed.

Wilbur said he had personally borrowed $2,500 on his own note to pay Mr. Noble the balance due on June 4, 1920, so as not to lose interest on money in the savings bank which was payable July 1 but would have been lost if he had drawn it out in June.

Mr. Goodsell, said Mr. Wilbur did not own any farming implements or other personal property, no watch or jewelry, and there was nothing of value among his effects, which were in the old chest where he found the bank books.

Mr. Wilbur also testified to payments of $50 to Dr. Crawford and $250 to Charles Mauterstock for board, care and services. When asked whether he did not consider that $6,000 was a large amount to expend for a monument, lot and funeral expenses, he replied it had seemed to him he did not have anything to say about it, under the will which provided that that amount should be expended. Mr. Baldwin claimed that the executor had exceeded the limit named in the will by about $800, and it was a question whether this amount should be taken away from the residuary legatee.

The undersigned bill, Mr. Wilbur, was $667, burial lot, $500, vault, $28.65; monument, $4,250; foundation for monument, $54.

In regard to the payments to Dr. Crawford and Mr. Mauterstock, Surrogate Gill said he did not consider they related to funeral expenses. Mr. Baldwin said that under the will the executor was authorized to expend for lot monument, funeral and debts the sum of $6,000 and it seemed perfectly clear the executor could not exceed that amount. Mr. Kaufman said this examination was for the purpose of giving Mr. Baldwin opportunity to determine whether he would file additional objections, that the surrogate has said he would not pass on these items, which must be heard by the county judge, and he objected to Mr. Baldwin's questions.

Mr. Wilbur said he had not advised with the residuary legatee in regard to expenditures but had advised with his counsel. He had not personally written any letters in connection with the estate but had personally done all the work with the advice of his counsel. He had personally gone to the Sauerzies banks, personally had three or four interviews with Mr. Noble and several with the cemetery trustees. He had not personally kept any books or made any entries. It was Mr. Goodsell's wish that he should employ Mr. Kaufman, and at Mr. Goodsell's request he had taken Mr. Kaufman to his house to draw the will. He had personally attended to funeral arrangements, consulting with his counsel as to the amount he should spend, and later he had personally visited Greenwood Cemetery and cemeteries at Troy, Albany, Newburgh, Kingston and in Connecticut before selecting a monument design. The belongings of Mr. Goodsell consisted of a lot of old clothes, old newspapers and other accumulations of years, which he kept in a chest with the old family bible which contained the bank books.

As executor, Mr. Wilbur said, he had invested $1,200 in a mortgage on property at West Saugerties. The mortgage had been paid within the past two months. He did not know when the mortgage had become due, or whether it drew five or six percent interest. The money in the savings bank drew four per cent. There had been no expense connected with the mortgage loan. Mr. Baldwin said there was a charge for legal services in connection with the mortgage, and it was a question whether the borrower should pay this, or the residuary legatee.

The hearing will be continued before Judge Fowler as acting surrogate on November 23.

WILL CELEBRATE HARDING VICTORY

Big Demonstration at Ellenville Saturday Night in Celebration of Harding and Coolidge Election.

Ellenville's first demonstration in honor of the sweeping victory on Tuesday for Harding and Coolidge will take place Saturday night at Ellenville, where a big parade will be held under the auspices of the Harding and Coolidge Club of Ellenville and the Harding and Coolidge Club of Ulster county. Large delegations from various parts of Ulster, Orange and Sullivan counties have sent word that they will go to Ellenville to take part in the demonstration, and there will be five bands of music.

The enthusiasm aroused by the Harding and Coolidge Club of Ellenville and the associated Harding and Coolidge Clubs in various parts of the county added materially to the result in the county of Ulster on election day, and the discussion of the National States, by the eminent men and women who were brought here under the auspices of the club was greatly appreciated by voters from all sections.

Indoubtedly there will be many Kingston Republicans who will go to Ellenville Saturday night to take part in the demonstration.

KENTUCKY VOTE STILL IN DOUBT

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 5.—The result of Tuesday's election in Kentucky was still not definitely known early today. Indications were, however, that the state's electoral vote will go to Governor Cox, but that a Republican will replace Senator J. C. Beckham in the senate. Latest available returns show that R. F. Ernest, Democrat, has defeated Beckham, and Coolidge Club of Ulster county few scattered precincts remain to be completed.

Democrats have raised the cry of fraud and are preparing to contest in Ernest's election. It was declared to be a demonstration, and there will be five bands of music.

With a few scattered precincts to be heard from, Governor Cox has a lead of 3,500, but the precincts yet to report are expected to show Republican pluralities. Whether they will cut down Cox's lead to the extent of altering the result, probably will not be known until the final count is complete.

GOMPERS CLAIMS FRIENDS' ELECTION

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Washington, Nov. 5.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, today issued a statement that the American Federation of Labor in its non-partisan campaign defeated 50 candidates hostile to labor and elected from 55 to 59 "whose records show fair and considerate service."

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

By Telegram to The Freeman.

New York, Nov. 5.—Stock market movements continued mixed at the opening today with severe losses sustained in many stocks while others were in brisk demand at advances.

Northern Pacific had a wide opening of from 35 to 34 1/2 and in the latter trading, the stock moved up to 35 1/2, a gain of 1 1/2. The buying was based on knowledge in regard to oil developments on the system. Southern Pacific rose 1 point to 116 1/2. Reading advanced 1 point to 108 1/2. Chesapeake and Ohio was a strong feature, selling up 2 1/2 to 70 1/2. Atlantic Gulf was weakest of the industrials, dropping 4 points to 135. The copper stocks were in good demand at fractional advances. Steel Common fell 1/2 to 86 1/2.

Stocks were under pressure again during the forenoon, many of the industrial issues suffering losses of from 1 to 2 points. The steel industrials were all in supply. Baldwin locomotive falling from 112 1/2 to 111 1/2 and Steel Common was down 3/4 to 86 1/2. Mexican Petroleum yielded 2 points to 188 1/2. Southern Pacific, after advancing to 116 1/2, dropped to 114 1/2. General Motors fell to a new low record of 16 1/2.

The market closed weak; government bonds unchanged; railway and other bonds steady.

President-Elect Harding Casting Ballot.

Half the neighborhood was waiting inside and outside a private garage at Marion, Ohio, which served as a polling place in the Harding precinct, to greet President-elect Harding and Mrs. Harding when they arrived to cast their votes election morning. Voters in line stood aside, but the Hardings refused to have places yielded for them and remained behind eight women and two men. The photo shows the twenty-eighth president of the United States casting his ballot.

In its effort to prevent the possibility of a Bubonic plague in this country the United States Health Service has utilized large metal traps placed on hawfers of ships in port, to prevent infected rats from landing. A walk along any water front and you will see the rat guards in place. The photograph shows a government official putting one of the rat shields in place on the hawfer of a vessel just arrived from a foreign port.
